

Privacy Policy

Unicorpus Health Foundation is committed to the privacy of individuals who visit and interact with www.uhf.org (the "User/s") and follows the privacy policy outlined below.

Personally, Identifiable Information

Users may be asked to share their email address and other Personally Identifiable Information to subscribe to email alerts or newsletters or send information including receipts for the donations (if any). In this event, the Unicorpus Health Foundation will store this information securely and will not share, rent or sell it to anyone other than UHF partner organizations. We reserve the right to share names, addresses, and account history with our affiliates for purposes that include provision to you of information on fundraising activities and appeals for donations. In no case will any sensitive financial information be shared. See below for the use of information related to online donations.

Non-personally identifiable information

By accessing the Site, certain information such as Internet protocol (IP) addresses, navigation through the Site, the browser used and the time spent, along with other similar information, will be stored on our servers and on a third-party analytics software. This information is treated confidentially.

The purpose of this data collection is to understand better the preferences of the Site's visitors and improve their experience on our pages. This information is never connected with any personal information that visitors supply to us if they register on our Site.

Donations to Unicorpus Health Foundation:

Unicorpus Health Foundation requests information from the User on its donation form. Here the User must provide contact information (like name and address) and financial information (like credit card number, expiration date). This information is used to conduct the transaction and help us better manage donors. If we have trouble processing a donation, this information is also used to contact the User. Unicorpus Health Foundation will store this information securely and will not share it, rent, or sell it to anyone. We reserve the right to share names, addresses, and account history with our affiliates (if needed be) for purposes that include provision to you of information on fundraising activities and appeals for donations. In no case will any sensitive financial information be shared.

Correction and Updating Personal Information

Users may want to modify their information (such as zip code or email address) at any time by sending the request to contact@uhf.org. UHF will proceed with the request and modify the user preferences where possible (i.e., language) or will ask the user to fill in a form again with the new personal information.

Opting-out

Users may elect to receive communications such as newsletters, CMEs and other UHF material from UHF time to time. If they do, they can stop receiving such communications at any time by clicking on the unsubscribe link at the bottom of each email or by sending the request to <mailto:contact@unicopus.org> UHF will proceed with the request and remove the user from the mailing list.

Notification of Changes

If Unicorpus Health Foundation decides to change its privacy policy, UHF will post those changes to this page, so Users are always aware of what information we collect and how we use it.
